

MY SuperConnector

Social Media Expert - I teach entrepreneurs and executives to excel on LinkedIn

LINKEDIN TRAINER / STRATEGIST

Jennifer Corcoran is an award-winning social media expert. Known as 'The Super Connector' and one of the UK's most successful LinkedIn trainers, she helps thousands of people thrive online through her online courses, consulting, workshops, group academy and talks.

1% of LinkedIn users actively post content. 9% are engagers and 90% are lurking. Jennifer's vision is to empower millions of people to leverage LinkedIn to drive positive change in their lives and others'. She helps female coaches, consultants & trainers attract their ideal client to reach that next level of revenue without having to pay for ads or do awkward cold outreach.

A self confessed introvert, Jennifer has learned over time that you need to toot your horn to get where you want in life. At the age of 3, Jennifer's mother was diagnosed as bipolar and she spent much of her life hiding in the shadows not wanting to draw attention to herself. Jennifer now helps others to toot their horns on LinkedIn and create economic opportunities. With Jennifer's help her clients refocus and get a LinkedIn profile which truly represents them and a holistic approach to networking resulting in their ideal clients knocking on their door.

While working in The City as an Executive PA, Jennifer used social media to elevate her reputation and earned the title of the Most Networked PA in London alongside national and global awards. A back injury cut her City career short but led Jennifer to find her true calling - as a LinkedIn trainer and networking adviser.

Jennifer has been spotlighted in regional, national and global campaigns and has held 1st place on the #LinkedInROCKSTARS list. She is one of Enterprise Nation's Top 10 Trusted Advisers in the UK for 2020.
